SUBMISSION OF TERMINAL DISCLAIMER

Commissioner for Patents

P.O. Box 1450

Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

Introductory Comments:

This paper is presented in further response to the Office Action mailed on April 19, 2005, in which the claims in this application were finally rejected. This paper is filed within the time for the filing of a brief in the appeal of the final rejection of this case, as extended, and accompanies Appellants' Brief in that regard. The fee for this disclaimer is paid via the Fee Transmittal enclosed with this paper.

Acceptance of the terminal disclaimer submitted with this paper is requested, in order to place the claims in better condition for appeal.

No amendment is presented

REMARKS

Reconsideration of this application is respectfully requested.

Claims 1 and 2 remain in this case. No claim is amended.

The provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection of claims 1 and 2 is again noted. Applicants submit herewith a terminal disclaimer in any patent granted on this application, relative to the term of any patent granted from the reference application. Applicants submit that this terminal disclaimer obviates the provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection of the claims in this case.

Acceptance of the terminal disclaimer in this application is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Rodney M. Anderson

STATEMENT UNDER 37 C.F.R. §3.73(b) AND TERMINAL DISCLAIMER

Commissioner for Patents

P.O. Box 1450

Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

1. Texas Instruments Incorporated, a Delaware corporation, states that it is the assignee of the entire right, title, and interest in this patent, by virtue of an assignment from the inventors of this patent application, as recorded in the Patent and Trademark Office at reel 012740, frame 0367, and at reel 015604, frame 0616.

2. Texas Instruments Incorporated hereby disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term of any patent granted on pending reference application S.N. 10/017,077 (the "reference application") as such term is defined in 35 U.S.C. §154 and 35 U.S.C. §173, and as the term of any patent granted on the reference application may be shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to the grant of any patent on the reference application. Texas Instruments Incorporated agrees that any patent so granted on this patent application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and any patent granted on the reference application are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on this application and is binding upon the grantee, and its successors or assigns

3. In making this disclaimer, Texas Instruments Incorporated does not disclaim the terminal part of the term of any patent granted on this application that would extend to the expiration of the full statutory term as defined in 35 U.S.C. §154 and 35 U.S.C. §173 of the prior patent "as the term of the prior patent is presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer", or of any patent granted on the reference applications, "as the term of any such patent granted on the reference applications may be shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to the grant thereof", in the event that such patent later:

- a. expires for failure to pay a maintenance fee;
- b. is held unenforceable;
- c. is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction;
- d. is statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminal disclaimed under 37 C.F.R. §1.321;
- e. has all claims canceled by a reexamination certificate;
- f. is reissued; or
- g. is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer.

4. The undersigned, whose title is supplied below, is authorized to act on behalf of the assignee.

Texas Instruments Incorporated
